NEW BUSINESS

RESOLUTION NO 885
FOR ADDENDUM TO MITIGATED NEGATIVE
DECLARATION FOR EL CARRO WELL PROJECT

Director Roberts recused himself from discussion during this agenda item due to his possible conflict of interest as Parks and Recreation Director for the City of Carpinteria. General Manager Hamilton then briefly stated the purposes for the proposed Addendum for the Mitigated Negative Declaration for the El Carro Well Project, namely, to address changes in schedule, the possible need for a temporary classroom for the Howard Carden School, and drilling of the well deeper into the "C" zone. District Engineer followed with a detailed explanation of the changes, and was assisted by Steve Tanner of Pueblo Water Resources, who answered questions about well construction. Following discussion Director Drain moved and Director Van Wingerden seconded the motion to approve Resolution No. 885 Adopting Addendum No. 1 to the Mitigated Negative Declaration/Initial Study for the El Carro Well and Central Zone Pipeline Improvements Project, and Corresponding Changes in the Mitigation Monitoring Program. The motion carried by 3-0-1 vote, with Director Roberts abstaining.

RATIFICATION OF FY 09-10 BUDGET
FOR CACHUMA CONSERVATION

Counsel Manion departed from the meeting before the beginning of the discussion about this agenda item. Following brief comments by Mr. Hamilton about the reduction of CCRB legal expense during her tenure as General Manager, Kate Rees provided a summary of the FY 09-10 Budget for the Cachuma Conservation Release Board/Improvement District No 1. Following questions and discussion, Director Roberts moved and Director Van Wingerden seconded the motion to ratify the FY 09-10 Budget for CCRB/ID#1. The motion carried by 4-0 vote.

RELEASE BOARD
/ID#1
